Summary

We have been maintaining this piano for over 20 years – purchased new in 1983 Los Angeles it has spent its life in California. It received light play over the years, and is in superb condition.

The bass is deep and powerful, and closer to that of a Model D concert grand. With an extremely resonant soundboard, all registers sing equally and will appeal to musicians who appreciate the classic New York Steinway voice and power. This is a concert-level instrument in every respect.
